

I strongly oppose the Consumer Banks Association's attempt to repeal the Indiana Telephone Privacy laws. As a participant in the do not call list, I have noticed a significant reduction of unwanted phone calls after joining the list. I am frustrated to find that businesses would attempt to go against the wishes of the citizens of Indiana. Please oppose changes to the Telephone Privacy Law for all of us who enjoy eating dinner without being harrassed by telemarketers.

Sincerely,
Melissa Adams